OHCA pharmacists fill bill at prestigious award ceremony

OKLAHOMA CITY – The Oklahoma Health Care Authority (OHCA) is honored to announce Pharmacy Director Nancy Nesser, Pharm. D., J.D., as the 2014 Ralph D. Bienfang Outstanding Practitioner. Among other accomplishments, this distinction recognizes Dr. Nesser for her longstanding and exemplary leadership within the pharmacy profession, sensitivity to human needs, and public service. The award is from the University of Oklahoma (OU) College of Pharmacy Alumni Association.

"The Oklahoma Health Care Authority congratulates Dr. Nesser on this much-deserved honor," said CEO Nico Gomez. "The agency is extremely fortunate to have such a well-rounded, consummate professional leading our pharmacy program. It is due to the commitment of people like Dr. Nesser that SoonerCare continues to be a model of excellence among state Medicaid programs."

Since 2001, Dr. Nesser has overseen all aspects of the SoonerCare (Oklahoma Medicaid) pharmacy benefit, including drug coverage status and reimbursement issues. Dr. Nesser is also a volunteer pharmacist with the Lighthouse Medical Clinic, a free clinic in south Oklahoma City.

"You go about your business every day thinking that no one notices what you are doing, and then someone gives you an award like this and you realize someone is watching," said Dr. Nesser. "I am deeply honored to have been selected."

Dr. Nesser is a member of the Western Medicaid Pharmacy Administrators Association and the American Medicaid Pharmacy Administrators Association. Currently, Dr. Nesser co-chairs the pharmacy workgroup of the National Association of Medicaid Directors.

"I remember seeing the plaque in the hallway with all the previous winners listed each year," said Dr. Nesser, who in this month marks 30 years since she started pharmacy school. "It never crossed my mind that I would be included one day."

Dr. Nesser is one of three pharmacy professionals to be recognized at the 2014 Alumni Celebration and Awards Program in Norman, Okla.
